Desperate Battle Before Richmond

Union Forces Driven Back The First Day Fifty Years Ago

Lost Ground Then Regained—3,000 in Killed and Wounded—Home Happenings in '62.

Flerce fighting before Richmond, with heavy Union losses only exceeded in one battle of the war up to that time, was the outstanding feature of the war news fifty years ago this week.

Locally this was the week of the Norwich city election when James Lloyd Green, Republican, was elected with his entire party ticket. The following are extracts from the files of the Bulletin in '62:

June 2, 1862—A list of Union prisoners released from Salisbury, N. C., and now on their way home contains the following names: M. Harvey, Co.
C, 2nd New London; Norwath, J. G.
Munroe, Co. A, 2nd New London; D.
Rosenblatt, Co. A, 2nd New London; P. Wilkinson, Co. A, 2nd Putnam; H. C. Rogers, teamster, Co. H, 7th Norwich.

Norwich City Election.
At the Norwich city election, today, the whole republican ticket was elected, the following being the vote: For mayor, James Lloyd Green, r. 594; James S. Carey, d. 302; for aldermen, John A. Morgan 482, Isaac Johnson 496, Z. C. Crowell 470, Hiram B. Cross-by 512, respectively. James A. Hovey 245, Ebenezer F. Barker 234, H. H.
Adams 243, Joseph G. Lamb 229, democrats. Republican common councilmen elected were Alfred H. Vaughn, George Gerald, Charles Winters, Amos C. Williams, Sylvester Subert, Joseph A. Smith, John P. Barsow and Robert G. Colt. John L. Dexter was elected city clerk, Francis A. Hovey city treasurer, Zevelon R. Robinson and Joseph T. Thurston city sheriffs.

June 2, 1862—David Gallup of Plainfield has been chosen president of the Quinn's bank in place of L. W.
Carroll resigned.

Recruits are being received in Norwich for the Slater Rifles, a company attached to the Fourteenth Connecticut infantry.

Flerce Fighting Before Richmond.
June 4, 1862—Definite details of a battle before Richmond last Saturday and Sunday, make it appear as the most severe of the entire war.

Landing. The first day's advantage was with the rebels. Gen. Casey's division was pressed back by the rebels struck for a mile and a half, when they were supported by the reinforcements sent them by Gen. Huntzman, and subsequently by a portion of the corps of Gen. Sumner. The enemy was then checked and the troops returned for the night. The events of the following day are thus summed up by the New York Times: correspondent.

Flushed with their seeming victory of Saturday, the rebels awoke with confidence on Sunday to follow up their movements, sure of driving us this time to the Chickahominy, and thence to the James river. But they had made the fatal mistake of estimating the strength of our reserves by the weakness of our advance. Most bitterly did they pay for their Saturday successes. They were met by the trained troops of Heintzelman and Sumner, whose divisions in consequence of their Saturday successes had been ordered to move on their return now to break and run, and they were met by the trained troops of Heintzelman and Sumner.

June 7, 1862—A dispatch to the Associated Press from Washington, June 7, says that the rebels have been evacuated by the rebels.

WIFE WANTS ALIMONY
TO BE CONTINUED.

Rebecca Eliensky is suing for Divorce —Arguments Before Superior Court.

The motion of Rebecca Corran Elionsky, last her husband, Isaac Elionsky, for a divorce, was heard today in the superior court here Friday at the short calendar session. Elionsky had been paying his wife $7 a week, but stopped on advice of counsel when she brought a counter suit. Judge Holcomb reserved decision.

In the case of Rebecca Eliensky vs.
Isaac Eliensky, the case was set for plead and disclosure of defense were ordered. The argument on the motion for foreclosure and limitation of time for replevin was postponed.

In the case of Robinson and others vs.
Franklin G. Keeney, executor, non-suit for failure to plead, answer was ordered in three weeks.

In Allen and others, trustees, vs.
Almy, executor, Edmund W. Perkins was appointed guardian ad litem for Philip Almy.

In Lafayette P. Main vs. Julia B.
Main, Judge Holcomb took the papers after hearing the argument on motion for more specific statement.

In the suit of Morgan, Brian Maxson, Charles P. Maxson and George Castello, all of the town of Groton, vs. the West Mystic Manufacturing company, judgment in entering the acts of Frank H. Hinchey of Groton as receiver for the company.

Assignments.
The following assignments were made for the week ending June 7:

Tuesday—Murphy Brothers vs. St.
Mary's Roman Catholic church corporation (now on trial); Amode Church vs. town of Montville; Georganna Chetty vs. town of Montville; William W. Carpenter vs. Sanford H. Holmes.

Wednesday—Owen McPartland vs.
Albert R. Barrow, new Haven road vs. Charles R. Brown and others (two cases); New Haven road vs. Neltie T. Rose; New Haven road vs.
Pauline W. Stable and others.

June 8 (special)—Crutenden vs.
Williams; Driscoll, administrator, vs.
Hamilton R. Douglas.

Decision in Button Case.
Memorandum of decision has been handed down by Judge Holcomb in the suit brought by Irving S. Button administrator of the estate of Albert H. Button of Griswold, deceased, naming $1,782 as the sum to be paid by the administrator to Irving S. Button. The matter involved suit against the administrator of his father's estate, claiming that the elder Button had agreed to deed to the son all his property consisting of the son and his wife providing the elder man a home.

The father failed to make the deed in his lifetime and the son brought suit against the administrator, claiming that the services he and his wife had rendered were worth $200 a year and asking damages. The judge found that the services were worth $200 a year and that $1,782 should be paid amount paid, with interest from April 24, 1911, which was the time that the father made his claim upon the administrator.

ASSISTANT POSTMASTERS.
A. L. Peale Secretary of Organization Meeting at New London.

From responses received from the assistant postmasters of the state, it is expected that about 40 of them will be in New London Saturday for the annual meeting of the Assistant Postmasters' association of Connecticut. The association comes at the invitation of Assistant Postmaster Franklin W. Dow.

At 2 o'clock the assistant postmasters will enjoy a dinner at Ocean lunch. They will then hold a business session at the beach with election of officers. John T. Boylan is president of the association and A.
L. Peale of this city is secretary.

NORWICH TOWN

Death of William J. Rooney—Mission at Sacred Heart Church to Open Sunday—Glimpse of Seashore Limited.

William J. Rooney, whose death occurred early Friday morning at his home on West Town street, was born August 2, 1884, in Norwich town, the son of George and Mary (Murphy) Rooney. He was one of a number of children in the school system which proved incurable. Such brave endurance of much suffering in rarely seen in so marked degree.
When asked how he was, the cheery answer was "All right," or "Feeling fine." For the past year he had steadily, the end coming peacefully.

In his studies he showed much enthusiasm and was a promising pupil.
He enjoyed the interests of his many friends, and they in turn were devoted to him. He was one of a number confirmed at Sacred Heart church September 8, 1910. In their loss the parents and uncle who have cared for him have the sympathy of neighbors and friends.

Pleasures of Drifting Trip.
A carriage ride to Willimantic was taken Thursday by two ladies here, Susan and Bessie Ballew. They left the steady march of improvement.
The long flights of wooden steps leading to the company's houses on the bank are being replaced by stone ones of modern make. All the houses are wired for electric lights. A fine Catholic church is being built. All along the way the road was through an especially beautiful country.

Seashore Limited Goes Through.
At 1:30 o'clock Friday morning the Seashore Limited express passed through here to New London. The engine, and cars twice the size of ordinary ones, with special name on the side, attracted much attention.

To Unite With Broadway C. E.
The Y. P. S. C. E. of the First Congregational church will give up its Sunday evening service to unite with Broadway church here. Abby Snell, church in the Hindu costume, will give a monologue.

Early Produce.
Joseph and Cornelius Becham of Yonkers, N. Y., have sent two dozen bunches of beets Thursday, also heads of lettuce.

To Preach at M. E. Church.
Rev. H. A. Arnold will preach Sunday at the First Methodist church on West Town street.

Mission to Open.
A week's mission will be opened on Sunday morning at Sacred Heart church by a Jesuit father.

Miss Ellenora Hansen is spending three weeks' vacation at her home on the Seashore road.

Mrs. James Rushnell and her granddaughter Miss Edna, have moved to the new home on the Seashore road.

William Grimes of Hartford, who

CARD OF THANKS.
To all the kindly people who in any way manifested their sympathy and interest in us by deeds of sympathy and helpfulness while our loving son and brother was very ill, and during the sudden taking away of a devoted father and husband, we take this meagre method of manifesting our appreciation and thanks. They will always lovingly linger in our memories.
